BALLOT DRAWN ON SALE DAY

VENDORS

Vendors of Dairy Cattle will now be allowed to attend the sale and represent their stock. However, this will be subject to STRICT 2 metre social distancing being adhered to which will be monitored by the local authority and in the event of non-compliance, the auction mart's licence to operate could be suspended. The protocol listed below must be followed:

- a) One vendor to attend per consignment i.e no extra family members or onlookers
- b) Prior to sale, vendors may wash their cattle and stand by their animal(s) but must respect social distancing
- c) Vendors to follow their stock to the ring and represent their animals in the usual manner
- d) Following the sale of their stock, vendors to leave the sale ring and premises, Auction staff will milk your cattle (i.e. not to remain to watch other stock being sold, liaise with buyers or go into the office)
- e) Luck money etc to be sorted by the auction staff as has recently been the case
- f) Vendors at all times to maintain 2 metre social distancing

Any instructions regarding luck and reserves, if any, along with as much information as possible with regards to your entries, should be given to the auctioneers/clerk in writing prior to the sale.

* PURCHASERS ****

You will be required to register at the sale ring entrance prior to the sale.

Pre-sale viewing of cattle will be allowed subject to social distancing being maintained.

During the sale social distancing must be strictly adhered to and purchasers will be required to stand/sit at the positions marked with blue tape at ring side or seating areas.
