Auctioneer's Report (Greg Macdougall):

A large company of buyers from all parts of the UK, some for the first time ensured all classes of lambs met with one of the dearest trades of the season so far. Long term lambs in particular seeing the biggest rise with trade £8-£10 dearer than the previous sale. Stronger and best bred lambs similar and although no long prices a decent trade with vendors happy with their returns. Topping the days sale were Beltex lambs at £96 from Jack Monk, Cuncliffe Moss with A R Beckerton close behind at £95. Best lambs in general either side of £90 with short keep sorts £80-£85. Small lambs especially nicely bred often £68-£72 with a cut below £50-£60 although not many in this category. Best of the mules similar, often £70-£78 with a few pens sneaking past £80 topping at £84 from J Middleton & Co, Deepdale. Smaller lambs £60-£68 with the whole section averaging £68.21.

Auctioneer's Report: (Greg MacDougall): With 15 active buyers in attendance all classes met a better trade than expected, with some steady trades reported in some centres. A very mixed show of quality with good fed sheep few and far between. A very respectable average of 196.6p SQQ 198.3 being achieved. Lightweight lambs of all breeds good to sell with HC Nimmo selling the best of the Ctl's to 225.7p and Dales lambs to 197.1p from GC&PM Haygarth & Daughter. Commercial export lambs 200-210p with a nicer sort 220p. Better bred lambs 245-275p topping at 279.3p from RA&C Benson. The heavy lamb trade bucked the weeks trend with 48-50kg lambs £95-£105 with best quality types £105-£115. Topping the nights at £116.50 were 53kg Texels from Carol Parker. Handy weight mules 190p-196p with heavier sorts £84-£90. Swales to 183.8p or £73.50.
